The Smart Set ,1912 Program Ann Arbor (Mich.). May Festival, 1904 Poetic Stories About the People of the Sun and of the Soul Michael Washington, 2011-05-04 In the army I often wrote letters for my fellow comrades for a price They would tell me the story and I would put them in words It was a good hustle for me to make a little extra money I would write poems for their ladies or wives for special occasions You know I liked doing it but I never did make copies to keep for myself Now the education system was a very pleasant experience until about the sixth grade for me when I learned that black people were slaves to white people in our social studies classes That was a defining moment for my educational experience because of the way it was taught It really threw me for a loop as I went home crying to my mother But she explained to me that the truth if you will seek you will find and that will make you free But from then on I lost some faith in the American education system As I learned later in life it was all based upon the theory of white supremacy For the facts that lead to truth were purposely left out of the mix to deprive black people of their righteous place in history and robbed white people of their truth in history The school system was one of the two major vehicles by which the white people claimed themselves as superior and the black people as inferior The other was religion and together as a double edge sword they still continue to put enmity between the different peoples and cultures of the world I did not give up on my learning experience and started to read other materials such as magazines comics and biographies of great men of color especially sports figures But the number one thing that I used to learn how to read better was the sports page of the L A Times I would read that section from front page to back page every morning before school But in school poetry was my most favored reading I liked the rythming of words as well as the message I think it was related to another love of mine as a child and that was music and dancing It didn t take long for me memorize the lyrics of a song as we danced along singing aloud as if we were endowed with a gift from heaven above with that special kind of love That was the ultimate fun as a young man growing up to meet the girls To write little poems to your girlfriends was what I liked most The poetry of greeting cards was my cup of tea after my education experience on our family festivities and celebrations I would add my own poems to the cards on these occasions The family and friends always seemed to like them so very much always complimenting and encouraging me to write more But I did not pursue poetry much as I continued my quest for facts in pursuit of truth When my marriage ended in divorce in the early 1980s it was music and poetry that brought joy and peace within That s when my writing of poetry increased and my perspective about other things expanded As a single man again it was very interesting living the single life Now I have been married for 18 years living the family life called the American dream with grand children and all the wrappings and trappings that go with it But I don t mind one little bit because most of us should be graceful for the material life this land has produced despite its inequities For the horizon does not look as favorable for our future generations that must cope with the mess we have left for them in the physical mental and spiritual planes of life Like Other People Eleanora N.

Gambino,2011-10-28 In October 1975 Eleanora Gambino was working on her masters degree in special education at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven Connecticut One of the classes that she was taking was a course on cerebral palsy One night a documentary entitled Like Other People was shown It was about two young people who had cerebral palsy and were planning to get married Eleanora was newly engaged to be married to a man who has cerebral palsy Eleanora was born with cerebral palsy She identified with many of the experiences the couple in the documentary was being subjected to At the end of the documentary the professor asked individuals what they thought of the documentary One member of the class always arrived late and would sit near the door He was a speech therapist Eleanora always arrived early and would sit near the windows in front of the room He never observed Eleanora walking At that time she walked with the classic scissors cerebral palsy gait When the professor asked the speech therapist what he thought of the documentary he replied The documentary is unrealistic Disabled people are too involved in themselves They cannot love Clique ,1896

Mask in the Mirror Nidhi Chawla,2010-04 The process of weaving a fictional dream can be painful and also joyful path to self discovery realizes an ordinary man when he sits down to reveal his thoughts and bring to life characters whose lives would confront and impact his heart and mind As the people of the imaginary world open the Writer s eyes to his own soul he relishes his intimate sentiments and sees the color of his emotions Caught in an imaginary fabrication where at times he basks in the beauty of creation and at moments he suffers its loneliness There is transformation and simultaneous transition during these years of writing the beginning commences in the cold winter and rejuvenating spring comes in the end But the big question is will the Writer and his realm of fiction survive or both perish without the world ever reading his words and recognizing his worth Mask in the Mirror is a gripping story of self discovery introspection and a touching saga of how fictional life can change the real life of an ordinary man Progressive Farmer ,1910 Outside the Dream (RLE: Lacan)

Martin Stanton,2014-01-23 Originally published in 1983 Martin Stanton has written an intriguing and original guide to French styles of psychoanalysis He describes the development of psychoanalytic technique and shows how it has transformed the contemporary French literary and philosophical thought and writing as well as making inroads in the English speaking cultural world He argues that psychoanalysis has outgrown the individual setting and needs to evolve new methods of group work in this respect he believes it has a special role to play in educational institutions The book examines the grounds on which analysis has evolved subversive and deconstructive strategies and created radical alternatives It relates the Lacan effect on the psychoanalytic movement to long standing debates on patriarchy and authoritarianism and considers in a clinical section variant diagnoses of paranoia and schizophrenia It also discusses the future direction of psychoanalysis in the light of contemporary French research Mother of Gold Emerson Hough,1924 Children's Missionary Magazine of the United Presbyterian Church ,1896 Littell's Living Age ,1907 Demorests' Monthly Magazine ,1882

Munsey's Magazine for ... ,1922 The Girl's Own Annual ,1899 Words I Love, Volume 4 Charles Santiago,2025-05-22 Love is greater than the grave The body dies but the spirit lives on The spiritual union between two lovers does not have to be seen as being disrupted when one dies before the other The lover left behind can wage a battle against dead and gone and find a surprising new world of alive and here If one believes human beings are spiritual beings who survive the death of the body one can also believe those surviving spiritual beings delight to commune with their loved ones who still are robed in clay Cherished memories need not be the extent of what is left for the bereaved to turn to in coping with their perceived loss There is a complex and amazing unity and collaboration in heavenly goings on Love is the beginning and end of all of heaven s intentions and is accompanied by a tremendous wisdom and power to amaze Holy benevolent loving intelligent and powerful heavenly beings will come to those who seek them who want to be with them and be helped by them All these things were discovered to be true by the author who takes a special delight in writing about them by means of poetry
