Freestyle Haiku Collection Spiritual Collected:

Freestyle Haiku - Collection 1 Matto, 2015-05 This book contains the first four chapters of Matto's freestyle haiku and spiritual poetry Chapter 1 The six months of haiku in this chapter chronicle my life and my feelings as I dealt with some painful experiences During this time I grew emotionally I learned a lot about the world and I became close to new friends By the end of this trying time I realized important truths about myself about love and about loneliness Matto Chapter 2 During the five months I wrote these haiku I found myself drawn to elemental energies In particular I felt the wind Scientifically wind is the mixing of different bodies of air as they rise and fall To me wind is about change serendipity opportunity and renewal Air is essential in our lives and it is frequently taken for granted There's a lightness to air and similarly there's a lightness in many of these poems This chapter is about my spirit reconnecting with nature and the world It is in this chapter that my spirit breathes again mixing energy and life back into me Matto Chapter 3 The Spring of 2011 was a wonderful time for me I found a new love I found Peace for a while and I felt a renewed connection to family friends and nature My positive and optimistic mind carried out into the world and these poems are a history and glimpse of this beautiful time Matto Chapter 4 The Spring and all its beauty had passed and in its place I found an increasingly troubled mind The relationship I had so strongly yearned for had broken apart I faced wave after wave of layoffs where I saw my friends leave and the home I thought I found started to feel flimsy These challenges affected my words as well as my productivity I wrote far fewer poems in this time a few less than 100 poems over the course of an entire year Matto About This Poetry Matto's short poems may not seem like haiku because they do not follow the traditional form that many readers might expect These haiku are written in a free verse style that Matto calls Freestyle Haiku He discovered the possibility of this more freeing style of haiku from the writings of the Zen priest Santoka Teneda 1882-1940 He wandered and traveled during the later years of his life while writing haiku Matto enjoys writing Freestyle Haiku because it allows him to express abstract and powerful feelings in only a few words free from a mandated structure The words on his page are the most direct crystallization of his feelings and experiences and the brevity of haiku draws attention to the exact words he chooses A meaning rich haiku can be challenging to read treating one like prose will leave it flat The goal of a haiku is often to conjure up something beyond the words and their individual meanings The reader must add themselves to the poem to experience the words in the way they're presented to try and feel the poem About the Author Monk Matto poet author photographer filmmaker artist inventor teacher engineer carpenter producer entrepreneur spiritualist martial artist Chimera wrestler and Jedi Knight Ok maybe those last two are only true in a figurative sense Monk Matto lives in the Washington D C area and enjoys cruising around on his old motorcycle

American Senior Zen Roshi Robert Aitken gives new insight into Haiku by poetic masters Basho Issa Buson and Shiki In presenting themes from Haiku and from Zen literature Aitken illuminates the relationship between the two Readers are certain to find this an invaluable and enjoyable experience for the remarkable revelation it offers I am grateful for Robert Aitken s enthusiastic sharing of poems in The River of Heaven together with his rich personal and cultural perspectives It is a book where the author joyfully calls each of us as readers to share in the transcendent joys of haiku Juxtapositions Aitken mines the meanings in these brief gems about nature impermanence travel awareness silence beauty being present the turn of the seasons and much more Spirituality Practice Clear Water Jeannie Martin,2013-10-20 An introduction to the spiritual path of Haiku poetry Lilies of Forgiveness Sandi Christie,2020-11-24 Lilies of Forgiveness A Course in Miracles in Haiku is a collection of more than 500 Haiku poems in 5 7 5 form that journey through the text of A Course in Miracles one chapter at a time The poems highlight key concepts in beautiful Haiku verse as well as being a poetic mini refresher for ACIM ideas
