TikTok and Instagram cleanfluencers produce endless photos and videos of women cleaning tidying and putting things right. Figures such as Marie Kondo and Mrs Hinch have placed housework with its promise of a life of love and contentment at the centre of self care and positive thinking. And yet housework remains one of the world's most unequal institutions. Women, especially poorer women and women of colour, do most low paid and unpaid domestic labour. In The Return of the Housewife, Emma Casey asks why these inequalities matter and why they persist after a century of dramatic advances in women's rights. She offers a powerful call to challenge the prevailing myths around housework and the naturally competent woman homemaker.

The Therapist's Notebook for Systemic Teletherapy Rebecca A. Cobb, 2024-07-09 Many therapeutic activities that engage clients in in person therapy rooms are not obviously available via telehealth. Yet there are creative, practical and easy ways to intervene in teletherapy that go beyond talk therapy. The Therapist's Notebook for Systemic Teletherapy: Creative Interventions for Effective Online Therapy provides systemic teletherapy activities and interventions for a variety of topics and presenting problems. Forty chapters are arranged into seven parts: setup and preparation, self of the therapist, children and adolescents, adults, intimate relationships, families, and training and supervision. Leading experts provide step by step guidelines on setup, instructions, processing and suggestions for follow up for interventions that are grounded within foundational therapy theories, models and evidence based practice. This book explores both new intervention strategies and ways to adapt in person therapy interventions for telehealth. This book provides creative inspiration and practical advice for novice and experienced family therapists, clinical social workers, counselors, play therapists, psychologists, psychiatrists and others in related fields.
