Preaching Contextually Anuparthi John Prabhakar,2016-10-06 Preaching is the commission given by the great preacher Jesus Christ It is urgent because it communicates the essential gospel meant for the salvation of the perishing humanity God is universal and people are local The universal God became local in Jesus Christ through his incarnation The saving gospel of Jesus Christ is necessary to communicate contextually The majority of Indian Christians come from Dalit background The ongoing development of Dalit Theology is helping to make the gospel relevant and effective But the homiletic methodology being adapted in the Indian context is mostly from the West In this scenario Preaching Contextually searches for relevant methodology for Indian Dalits For this purpose contents of some sample sermons were analyzed homiletically to assess its relevance and to present a feasible method as a Dalit Homiletic Prof Dr J lio C zar Adam Brazil This is a book which contributes enormously to homiletic research and science not only in the Indian context but also for other contexts mainly those permeated by social ills and injustices It is a necessary book for those who study and do homiletics mainly in the context of vulnerability

Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1888 12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Wayne McDill,2006-07-01 In this newly expanded second edition of 12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Dr Wayne McDill draws on decades of experience as a preacher and homiletics professor to inspire other preachers to live up to their God given potential Here are twelve proven ways to pack more content and effectiveness into every sermon covering all of the bases from general preparation to the end result of increasing each listener s faith Recent seminary graduates and seasoned pastors alike will identify skills that need personal improvement and McDill encourages them to strengthen such areas at their own pace and in whatever order they feel is best Every chapter in this new edition has been revised and updated Also included are additional worksheet helps and sermon examples Lectures on Preaching Phillips Brooks,1877 Phillips Brooks a veteran minister with years of experience at the pulpit shares guidance on preaching and serving in the ministry in these lectures delivered at Yale University The nineteenth century was a time of great expansion in the United States and by extension the churches and Christian movements Demand for new preachers and ministers burgeoned that the many new communities founded had God in the hearts and minds of their inhabitants Having lived in what was an environment of upheaval Brooks felt it appropriate to pass on the wisdom and advice to prospective new ministers looking to found or join parishes around the country Making and delivering fine sermons the messages of which stay with the congregation is at the heart of what a good minister does Yet the work is not confined to merely this the preacher must be a support to the communal and spiritual life of his locality that his congregation be kept in good health and that their souls be shepherded toward a life of virtue and good conduct The preacher must also turn his attention inward his character must be examined for flaws or bad habits with virtues cultivated that he stand as a model for the wider community Annual catalog Crozer theological seminary (Chester, Pa.),1919 Crozer Theological Seminary, Upland, Pa. Eslinger,2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger s earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987
