Ethics And The School Administrator Balancing Todays Complex Issues:

Ethics and the School Administrator Daniel J. Mahoney, 2006 Ethics and the School Administrator Balancing Today's Complex Issues is a research based guide that will help school administrators understand and more effectively deal with the ethical compromises that arise from the complex organizational and interpersonal demands of their leadership roles Dan Mahoney combines personal knowledge candid revelations and interview data from five dedicated school administrators to show how to achieve the greater good Ethics and the School Administrator tells the real life story of educators professional experiences and examines their decision making processes Recommendations for professional practice are included This book will be of interest to principals superintendents school board members and professors and students in educational leadership programs BOOK JACKET Competency-Based Leadership M. Scott Norton, 2013-07-10 Competency Based Leadership is intended for school leaders that currently are serving as practitioners in the field In addition those individuals who aspire to a career in the principalship also will find the information of special value The primary purpose of the book is to provide practicing principals and others to meet the challenges related to learning leadership The book serves as a guide for ensuring the accomplishment of the goal of establishing a learning culture in the school Persons who use the book will gain the knowledge and skills that are required for becoming an effective learning leader in practice Getting Involved, 2008-01-01 Getting involved in society means becoming a human person by doing something for others and thus being connected to mankind and society Youngsters who get involved give meaning to life and develop a feeling of agency But getting involved is not easy Getting involved is necessary for living together creating democracy and sustainability of a global world The paradox is that in a modern multicultural society getting involved is even more important than in a traditional more monocultural society Getting involved relates to various scientific orientations Political sociological psychological and pedagogical questions are at issue and all of these will be consulted in this volume The main perspective however remains the issue of identity development relating to getting involved and will therefore be psychological This book gives a broad overview of current research in the field of moral development and citizenship It shows the diversity of concepts research methodologies and educational practices The book also shows the influence of local social cultural and political contexts The book can help researchers teacher educators politicians and practitioners in finding new and better ways of supporting youngsters in their moral and civic identity development Choice, 2007-03 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Higher Education Administration Rachel S. Blechman, Norma M. Goonen, 1999-11-30 Goonen and Blechman provide an analysis useful as a desk reference or as a text for practicing and prospective administrators and university counsel They examine the legal points ethical questions and practical steps an administrator or university counsel should be aware of in dealing with some of the most frequently encountered issues in the administration of a college university or other postsecondary institution Each chapter targets a selected area of academic affairs and the format includes four sections legal parameters ethical considerations practical suggestions and an illustrative case Hiring issues compensation and employment issues promotion and tenure terminations non renewals and reductions in force academic freedom student disputes on academic matters and transcript and degree issues are all analyzed Goonen and Blechman provide a general guide that can be readily utilized and understood by those without specific prior training in the law or in higher education administration The discussions and information the guide contains will be valuable to current and prospective practitioners as they seek to balance the legal ethical and practical issues that surface in every decision in the increasingly complex higher education arena Ethics and Public Policy Peter J. Bergerson,1988 Leadership Meta-Competencies Dimitris Bourantas,Vasia Agapitou,2016-04-22 This book doesn t offer overrated success stories which in most cases cannot be imitated It contains no check lists or recipes for success and it presents no theoretically based models The meta competencies discussed in this refreshing book are timeless virtues of which effective leaders seem to possess but which are rarely if ever included in lists of competencies in the vast business leadership literature They include Existential intelligence distinct from the much discussed emotional intelligence is about the ability to pose questions and reflect on fundamental issues in ways that develop a mature ability to interpret the world and better understand other people Phronesis is the ability to exercise sound judgement based on skilful application of moral and political rationality Solitude is a voluntary state achieved when an individual has the ability to momentarily withdraw and be free of external pressures and demands in order to concentrate on desired mental cognitive activities Trust building is more often discussed in leadership literature As a leadership competence it is about the ability to be credible show trust in and respect for other people and inspire trust For the curious business practitioner business student or business educator wishing to consider aspects of leadership competence that have to some extent been hidden or forgotten this book introduces the notion of meta competences and deals in detail with them NOLPE Notes ,1982 The School Administrator ,1951 Critical Problems In School Administration ,1934 Guide to College Majors 2008 Princeton Review,Princeton Review Publishing Staff,2005-02 Provides information on over three hundred common college majors from accounting to zoology including related fields prior high school subjects possible courses of study and career and salary prospects for graduates The Personnel Administrator ,1989-07 Official Report American Association of School Administrators,1940 Resources in Education ,1995-04 Law and Ethics in Educational Leadership David L. Stader,2007 Law and Ethics for School Administrators offers a real world problem based approach to legal and ethical issues that emphasizes application standards and cases throughout Aligned with ELCC and ISLLC Standards the book guides administrators as they face issues such as education religion and community values privacy students due process and safe schools student search and seizure equal protection children and special needs tort liability teacher employment supervision and collective bargaining teacher constitutional law and computers and the Internet Integrated examples do s and don ts features and case studies present legal and ethical dilemmas based on typical school issues and encourage the development of successful leadership skills Proceedings, Abstracts of Lectures and a Brief Report of the Discussions of the National Teachers' Association, the National Association of School Superintendents and the American Normal School Association National Education Association of the United States, 1940 Current Index to Journals in Education , 1998-07 The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1921
