Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection Thomas W. Simon, 2012-03-28 In Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection Designation Discrimination and Brutalization Thomas W Simon examines a new framework for considering ethnic conflicts In contrast to the more traditional theories of justice Simon s theory of injustice shifts focus away from group identity toward group harms effectively making many problems such as how to define minorities in international law dramatically more manageable Simon argues that instead of promoting legislative devices like proportional representation for minorities it is more fruitful to seek adjudicative solutions to racial and ethnic related conflicts For example resources could be shifted to quasi judicial human rights treaty bodies that have adopted an injustice approach This injustice approach provides the foundation for Kosovo s case for remedial secession and helps to sort out the competing entitlement claims of Malays in different countries Indeed the priority of Thomas W Simon s Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection is to ensure the tales of designation and discrimination told at the beginning of the work do not become the stories of brutalization told at the end In short the challenge tackled in this text is to assure that reason reigns over hate

Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L. Bantu, 2023-09-26 In Those for Whom the Lamp Shines Vince L Bantu uses the rich body of anti Chalcedonian literature to explore how the peoples of Egypt both inside and outside the Coptic Church came to understand their identity as Egyptians Working across a comparative spectrum of traditions and communities in late antiquity at the intersection of religious and other social forms of identity Bantu shows that it was the dissenting doctrines of the Coptic Church that played the crucial role in conceptualizing Egypt and being Egyptian Based on the study of neglected Coptic and Syriac texts Those for Whom the Lamp Shines offers the only sustained treatment of ethnic and religious self understanding in Africa s oldest Christian church
