Ethnicity And Substance Abuse Prevention And Intervention:

Ethnicity and Substance Abuse Grace Xueqin Ma, George Henderson, 2002 Although this book focuses most of its attention on ethnic minority substance abusers considerable mention is made of their White peers too Thus the authors offer cultural points and counterpoints all of them given to achieve three objectives 1 to make care providers aware of cultural factors that affect substance abuse and cessation 2 to review multidisciplinary research studies in order to ascertain helpful and unhelpful health care practices and 3 to provide practical suggestions for improving community wide substance prevention and intervention programs The book tries to answer three questions Substance Abuse Prevention

Snehendu B. Kar, 1999 Analyses the meaning and dynamics of multiculturalism affecting prevention intervention relative risks and knowledge gaps across ethnic groups social trends affecting health risks and substance abuse lessons learned from substance abuse research and prevention role of the media and promises and limits of the public health paradigm Drug Use and Ethnicity in Early Adolescence William A. Vega, Andres G. Gil, 2006-04-11 This book presents new and important information about adolescent drug use The book is intended for human service professionals teachers researchers and students interested in the issue of early adolescent drug use and its causes and pervasiveness in a multiethnic population Today the field of adolescent drug use research relies on integrative models that permit competing explanations of drug use This approach promotes flexibility in testing hypotheses pertinent to adolescents of very different social and cultural backgrounds or personal characteristics Longitudinal studies including the one presented in these pages have identified many risk and protective factors or processes that are linked to adolescent drug use We review these throughout this book and present new information from our own research Our point of departure is to extend and elaborate descriptive research and models of adolescent drug research to cover the unique and diverse experiences of adolescents who are Hispanic African American and White non Hispanic Biomedical Index to PHS-supported Research , 1988 Public Health Reports , 2001

Biomedical Index to PHS-supported Research: pt. A. Subject access A-H , 1992 African American Psychology Faye Z. Belgrave, Kevin Wendell Allison, Camilla W. Nonterah, 2025-08-18 African American Psychology From Africa to America provides a comprehensive and integrated introduction to the field The Fifth Edition presents recent advances and developments in African American psychology including new coverage of systematic and institutional racism Black empowerment COVID 19 s impact on Black communities and increased attention to heterogeneity within the Black community G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 2003 Effective Prevention and Treatment of Substance Use Disorders for Racial and Ethnic Minorities Erick Guerrero, Tenie Khachikian, 2020-03-11 Despite the significant burden of substance use disorders SUD across the world SUD treatment systems face significant challenges to ensure immediate access to effective care Prevention and treatment of SUDs is generally underfunded and its effectiveness to reduce substance use is frequently questioned This book presents

system level factors that may contribute to improving SUD prevention and treatment particularly for underserved and racial and ethnic minority populations The authors provide theory based approaches to prevention as well as evidence based spiritual managerial and leadership approaches to improve the effectiveness of SUD treatments These approaches include modifiable system and organizational level factors that policy makers healthcare administrators treatment providers and consumers can use to reduce the significant socio economic burden of SUD on our society Substance Abusing Latinos Mario De la Rosa,Lori K. Holleran,Shulamith Lala Ashenberg Straussner,2005 Information about the substance abuse behaviors among Latino populations has been limited Substance Abusing Latinos Current Research on Epidemiology Prevention and Treatment fills this void by presenting the latest research on the epidemic of substance abuse now afflicting the Latino community Ethnic differences are reviewed including specific studies covering gang members low income urban women risky behaviors language preference indicators of acculturation and culturally competent intervention strategies The research is then used as foundation to focus on the latest advances of substance abuse prevention and treatment programs Each chapter is extensively referenced to reinforce research Drug Abuse Prevention with Multiethnic Youth Gilbert J. Botvin,Steven P. Schinke,Mario A. Orlandi,1995-08-12 What is known about the influence of ethnicity upon drug use How can this knowledge be used to develop prevention programmes for multi ethnic youth Contributors to this invaluable book address these and other pressing questions They consider specific problems and challenges confronting researchers involved in studying substance abuse in minority communities explore explanations for racial and ethnic differences in drug use and examine possible risk and protective factors which influence use Current drug abuse prevention models in settings including schools communities and homeless shelters are also presented Cultural Competency in the Health Care System Steven Kurt Yao,1995 Cultural Competence for Evaluators ,1992 Managing Multiculturalism in Substance Abuse Services Jacob U. Gordon,1994-07-15 This is an excellent resource book for community counselors and alcohol and drug professionals who serve diverse populations school counselors who are concerned about prevention teachers who frequently are the front line observers of changes in student behavior and legislators who are committed to making a difference in the community This text is written in concise and clear language with a chapter on definitions as well as numerous examples Gloria Dansby Giles in Counseling Today No segment of American society has escaped the ravages of substance abuse Situating his community development model within a multicultural framework editor Jacob U Gordon addresses the connection between integration and involvement in the provision of treatment Managing Multiculturalism in Substance Abuse Services explores conceptual issues definitions of terms and historical developments of early intervention and treatment efforts in the field of alcohol and drug abuse Contributors examine the history demographics drug use patterns customs beliefs and communication styles of the five major racial cultural groups in America African Americans Asian Americans European Americans Native Americans and Latinos in relation to current substance abuse treatment prevention and intervention strategies The works provide diverse applications of a multicultural approach throughout the continuum of alcohol and drug abuse services addressing such critical issues as maintenance of drug free schools program evaluation and the role of leadership Finally major recommendations for change in public policy and in the traditional planning and delivery of services are presented There are many stimulating and informative sections in Managing Multiculturalism in Substance Abuse Services and one of the great strengths of this work is the range of issues raised by the contributors This absorbing volume offers a valuable resource to practitioners educators law enforcement officers and policymakers Drugs Education Prevention and Policy This absorbing volume offers students and professionals in the fields of health sciences drug and alcohol treatment and ethnic studies a wealth of practical and theoretical information Although written for American society concerning the effects of substance abuse upon the various ethnic groups in that country this book is pertinent for other countries composed of groups representing multiple ethnicities and cultures This absorbing volume offers a valuable resource to practitioners educators law enforcement officers and policy makers Journals Oxford Ltd American Journal of Public Health ,2008 Families in Society ,2003 Changing Lives Martin Bloom,1992 Helping professionals must know the underlying structures and dynamics of human behavior and development if they are to offer efficacious and humane care From across the broad spectrum of the social and health sciences this anthology presents important recent writings about human experience Changing Lives combines the presentation of basic information on human development with balanced descriptions of preventive and interventive methods of helping The volume comprises forty eight papers from a wide range of educators and health professionals from psychology sociology and epidemiology to social work nursing and counseling reflecting the multidisciplinary context in which the teaching of human development occurs Bloom has included papers which provide illustrations of all the modes of helping primary prevention treatment and rehabilitation those which address the major theoretical orientations of our day the ecological perspective the behavioral approach and psychodynamic theories an I witness report by a homeless woman and clinical case studies and research reports Each paper is self contained and includes references for additional study The readings are grouped around the eight elemental or universal human experiences growth and development communication love sexuality and pregnancy and life and death Each developmental phase from infancy to old age receives focused attention as indicated by alternative tables of contents Readers are introduced to the wide and penetrating scope of contemporary knowledge and critical questions are raised about what helping professionals know and how this knowledge might best be applied in practice from back cover Cultural Competence for Evaluators Mario A. Orlandi,1998-04 Examines the issue of cultural competence for program evaluators as it relates to African American Hispanic American Indian Alaska Native and Asian Pacific Islander American community groups The primary objective is to enhance the knowledge base and skills of professionals who are responsible for evaluating AOD abuse prevention programs in ethnic racial community settings Complementary chapters provide conceptual frameworks and practical suggestions for evaluators working with each of the ethnic racial groups concluding with a final overview of cultural competence

Clinical Manual of Substance Abuse Jean Kinney, 1996 A comprehensive practical reference for all health care professionals who care for patients with substance abuse problems Part I provides a framework for clinical management of these patients and Part II is comprised of chapters on working with specific populations and groups

Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities Jeanette Valentine, Judith Ann De Jong, 1998 This insightful volume describes a sample of prevention demonstration projects of the Center for Substance Abuse Prevention CSAP Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities illuminates various aspects of prevention theory practice and research with a focus on the design implementation adaptation and outcome of specific demonstration programs Researchers work with prevention professionals to describe measure and intensify effects of interventions upon both intermediate problems and the ultimate long term goal of decreasing substance abuse Chapters in Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities demonstrate how the CSAP demonstration logic model works The process of prevention program design begins with an analysis of the root causes of the problem as defined by the specific community and illuminated by theory Comprehensive prevention programs that buttress community strengths and build on local resources are then designed to deal with these problems The programs you ll learn from include a leadership and substance abuse prevention program based on the social influence model for girls in grades 6 8 from four geographically and ethnically diverse communities a program intricately designed to build resiliency and protective factors within young at risk American Indian children in a Head Start program which addresses school transition school readiness school attendance and classroom based prevention activities a family skills training program for African American parents in substance abuse treatment which evolved in response to client and evaluation feedback a program for Native American families which uses a culturally oriented curriculum emphasizing traditional values beliefs and practices a coalition of neighborhood agencies organized to provide a comprehensive array of school and community based prevention services which impacted gang membership in inner city Latino youth a prevention program specifically designed to serve the diverse needs of Asian American youth from five different Asian ethnic communities a model substance abuse prevention program implemented to provide counseling mentoring and academic support to Hispanic and African American students in an urban public middle school the nationally recognized FAST program which strengthens the family and brings parents and schools together in building up protective factors for high risk elementary students a program that combines several complementary strategies to develop personal and communal empowerment in Native American communities Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities illustrates the wealth of information generated by demonstration programs Unlike a standard research protocol that imposes and tests a rigid single focused intervention under carefully controlled circumstances these programs do science in real life situations documenting and measuring effects of multiple interventions
