Ethnicity And Nationalism Anthropological Perspectives Anthropology Culture And Society:

Ethnicity and Nationalism: Anthropological Perspectives Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2010-10-15 In Ethnicity and Nationalism Thomas Hylland Eriksen demonstrates that far from being an immutable property of groups ethnicity is a dynamic and shifting aspect of social relationships Drawing on a wide range of classic and recent studies in anthropology and sociology Eriksen examines the relationship between ethnicity class gender and nationhood as well as current issues of racism globalization and multiculturalism Influential theories are presented and critically compared in a lucid and comprehensive manner A core text for all students of social anthropology and related subjects Ethnicity and Nationalism has been a leading introduction to the field since its original publication in 1993 New topics in this edition include cultural property rights the role of genetics in the public understanding of identification commercialisation of identity and the significance of the internet

Ethnicity and Nationalism Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2002-07-20 New expanded edition of a classic anthropology title that examines ethnicity as a dynamic and shifting aspect of social relations Ethnicity and Nationalism Thomas Hylland Eriksen, 2010-09-08 Is ethnicity a result of cultural differences Is ethnicity dependent on the practical use and belief in cultural differences Drawing on a wide range of classic and recent studies in anthropology and sociology Thomas Hylland Eriksen examines the relationship between ethnicity class gender and nationhood Using the question What is ethnicity as his starting point Eriksen examines the interplay between ideology and ethnicity how the Internet impacts understanding of ethnicity identity politics and the commercialisation of identity Through this he reveals that far from being an immutable property of groups ethnicity is a dynamic and shifting aspect of social relationships A core text for all students of social anthropology and related subjects Ethnicity and Nationalism has been a leading introduction to the field since its original publication in 1993 This new edition expanded and thoroughly revised is indispensable to anyone seriously interested in understanding ethnic phenomena

Dementia, Culture and Ethnicity Julia Botsford, Karen Harrison Denning, 2015-04-21 With contributions from experienced dementia practitioners and care researchers this book examines the impact of culture and ethnicity on the experience of dementia and on the provision of support and services both in general terms and in relation to specific minority ethnic communities Drawing together evidence based research and expert practitioners experiences this book highlights the ways that dementia care services will need to develop in order to ensure that provision is culturally appropriate for an increasingly diverse older population The book examines cultural issues in terms of assessment and engagement with people with dementia challenges for care homes and issues for supporting families from diverse ethnic backgrounds in relation to planning end of life care and bereavement First hand accounts of living with dementia from a range of cultural and ethnic backgrounds give unique perspectives into different attitudes to dementia and dementia care The contributors also examine recent policy and strategy on dementia care and the implications for working with culture and ethnicity This comprehensive and timely book is essential reading for dementia care practitioners researchers and policy makers The Oxford Handbook of Deuteronomy Don C. Benjamin, 2025-01-31 The Oxford Handbook of Deuteronomy is a gateway to what legal traditions teach about the cultural identity and social world of the people of YHWH how they thought about themselves and about their world and how they faced and resolved the challenges of daily life This Handbook introduces readers to significant topics in the thriving conversation and the rich diversity in the academic community studying Deuteronomy The Making of Israel C.L. Crouch, 2014-06-10 In The Making of Israel C L Crouch presents the southern Levant during the seventh century BCE as a major period for the formation of Israelite ethnic identity challenging scholarship which dates biblical texts with identity concerns to the exilic and post exilic periods as well as scholarship which limits pre exilic identity concerns to Josianic nationalism The argument analyses the archaeological material from the southern Levant during Iron Age II then draws on anthropological research to argue for an ethnic response to the economic political and cultural change of this period The volume concludes with an investigation into identity issues in Deuteronomy highlighting centralisation and exclusive Yahwism as part of the deuteronomic formulation of Israelite ethnic identity Israel and Judah Redefined C. L. Crouch, 2021-08-12 In Israel and Judah Redefined C L Crouch uses trauma studies postcolonial theory and social scientific research on migration to analyse the impact of mass displacements and imperial power on Israelite and Judahite identity in the sixth century BCE Crouch argues that the trauma of deportation affected Israelite identity differently depending on resettlement context Deportees resettled in rural Babylonia took an isolationist approach to Israelite identity whereas deportees resettled in urban contexts took a more integrationist approach Crouch also emphasises the impact of mass displacement on identity concerns in the homeland demonstrating that displacement and the experience of Babylonian imperial rule together facilitated major developments in Judahite identity The diverse experiences of this period produced bitter conflict between Israelites and Judahites as well as diverse attempts to resolve this conflict Inspired by studies of forced migration and by postcolonial analyses of imperial domination Crouch s book highlights the crucial contribution of this era to the story of Israel and Judah

Cultural Identity and Archaeology P. Graves-Brown, Sian Jones, C.S. Gamble, 2013-04-15 International contributors UK Spain Sweden Norway Poland Very topical explores the question of European identity and asks who were the first Europeans Some contributors are very well known eg Colin Renfrew John Collis Kristian Kristiansen Nairi Lands Guido Guarducci, 2019-12-19 This study analyses the social and symbolic value of the material culture in particular the pottery production and the architecture and the social structure of the local communities of a broad area encompassing Eastern Anatolia the South Caucasus and North western Iran during the last phase of the Late Bronze Age and the Early Iron Age This broad area is known from the Assyrian texts as Nairi lands The second part of the study furnishes a reassessment of pottery production characteristics and theories as well as of the socio economic structure and issues tied to the sedentary and mobile local communities of the Nairi lands The study brings into focus the characteristics the extension and the distribution of Grooved pottery along with other pottery typologies by providing an accompanying online catalogue with detailed descriptions and high resolution images of the pots and sherds obtained from public and private institutions in Turkey and Armenia Moreover the socio political organisation and subsistence economy issues are addressed in order to advance a possible reconstruction of the social structure of the Nairi lands communities Particular attention is devoted to the pastoral nomad component and the role played within the Nairi phenomenon The study includes a very large corpus of text images and high resolution color images of the pottery of the area under examination gathered by the author in order to offer a reliable tool and compendium

Cultural Identity and Archaeology Paul Graves-Brown, Siân Jones, Clive Gamble, 1996 Cultural identity is a key area of debate in contemporary Europe Despite widespread use of the past in the construction of ethnic national and European identity theories of cultural identity have been neglected in archaeology Focusing on the interrelationships between concepts of cultural identity today and the interpretation of past cultural groups Cultural Identity and Archaeology offers proactive archaeological perspectives in the debate surrounding European identities This fascinating and thought provoking book covers three key areas It considers how material remains are used in the interpretation of cultural identities for example pan Celtic culture and Bronze Age Europe Finally it looks at archaeological evidence for the construction of cultural identities in the European past The authors are critical of monolithic constructions of Europe and also of the ethnic and national groups within it in place of such exclusive cultural political and territorial entities the book argues for a consideration of the diverse hybrid and multiple nature of European cultural identities

A World of Insecurity Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Ellen Bal, Oscar Salemink, 2010-03-15 Human security is a key element in the measure of well being and is a hot topic in anthropology and development studies A World of Insecurity outlines a new approach to the subject The contributors expose a contradiction at the heart of conventional accounts of what constitutes human security namely that without taking non material considerations such as religion ethnicity and gender into account discussions of human security academically and in practical terms are incomplete inconclusive and deeply flawed A variety of compelling case studies indicate that in fact material security alone cannot adequately explain or fully account for human activity in a range of different settings and exposed to a variety of different threats This forceful intervention will expand and deepen the entire concept of human security in the process endowing it with political relevance It is an essential book for students of development studies and anthropology

Race, Nature And Culture Peter Wade, 2002-06-20 Taking the study of race beyond Western notions of the individual Wade argues for an anthropological understanding of the connections between race sex and gender
