Identity and Identification in India Laura Dudley Jenkins, 2003-09-02 Can a state empower its citizens by classifying them Or do reservation policies reinforce the very categories they are meant to eradicate Indian reservation policies on government jobs legislative seats and university admissions for disadvantaged groups like affirmative action policies elsewhere are based on the premise that recognizing group distinctions in society is necessary to subvert these distinctions Yet the official identification of eligible groups has unintended side effects on identity politics Bridging theories which emphasize the fluidity of identities and those which highlight the utility of group based mobilizations and policies this book exposes didactic enforcement of categorizations while recognizing the social and political gains facilitated by group based strategies

Architecture and Urban Form in Kuala Lumpur Yat Ming Loo, 2016-04-08 Kuala Lumpur the capital city of Malaysia is a former colony of the British Empire which today prides itself in being a multicultural society par excellence However the Islamisation of the urban landscape which is at the core of Malaysia's decolonisation projects has marginalised the Chinese urban spaces which were once at the heart of Kuala Lumpur Engaging with complex colonial and postcolonial aspects of the city from the British colonial era in the 1880s to the modernisation period in the 1990s this book demonstrates how Kuala Lumpur's urban landscape is overwritten by a racial agenda through the promotion of Malaysian Architecture including the world famous mega projects of the Petronas Twin Towers and the new administrative capital of Putrajaya Drawing on a wide range of Chinese community archives interviews and resources the book illustrates how Kuala Lumpur's Chinese spaces have been subjugated This includes original case studies showing how the Chinese re appropriated the Kuala Lumpur old city centre of Chinatown and Chinese cemeteries as a way of contesting state's hegemonic national identity and ideology This book is arguably the first academic book to examine the relationship of Malaysia's large Chinese minority with the politics of architecture and urbanism in Kuala Lumpur It is also one of the few academic books to situate the Chinese diaspora spaces at the centre of the construction of city and nation By including the spatial contestation of those from the margins and their resistance against the state ideology this book proposes a recuperative urban and architectural history seeking to revalidate the marginalised spaces of minority community and re script them into the narrative of the postcolonial nation state

Exploring Ethnic Diversity in Burma Mikael Gravers, 2007 While the image of modern Myanmar Burma tends to be couched in human rights terms and especially of a heroic Aung San Suu Kyi opposing an oppressive military regime in reality there are several conflicts with ethnic and religious dimensions as well as political and ideological differences between the opposition and the ruling military regime This is not surprising in a country where 30% of the population and much of the land area are non Burman and where contradictory tendencies towards regional separatism versus unitary rule have divided the people since before independence In what is probably the most comprehensive study of Burma's ethnic minorities to date this volume discusses the historical formation of ethnic identity and its complexities in relation to British colonial rule as well as to the modern state the present situation of military rule and its policy of Myanmarification Changes of identity in exile and due to religious conversion are also analysed and discussed Finally the book deals with relevant and recent anthropological and sociological theoretical discussions on the ethnic identity boundaries and space of all the main ethnic groups in Burma It probes into the complexity and diversity of ethnicity in Burma and it provides more details and up to date information than previously collected in one volume
